

Scalable Game Design STUDENT Media Release Form

This Media Release Form is for classroom activities sponsored by the Computational Thinking Foundation, the University of Colorado Boulder's department of Computer Science and AgentSheets Inc. (Sponsors). In these contexts, the Sponsors explore how students can be motivated to learn about computer science by learning how to make their own games. You/your child can participate in the activities even if you prefer not to sign this form. Signing this form allows us to take pictures and video of you/your child during class activities.

I grant permission to the Sponsors and its associates, to use my/my child's name and/or photographs or video footage for use in the Sponsor's publications such as printed or electronic brochures, newsletters or display boards, such as the Scalable Game Design Wiki, the Sponsor's web sites or other electronic forms or media. I hereby waive any right to inspect or approve the finished images in printed or electronic form, now or in the future, whether that use is known to me or unknown, and I waive any right to royalties or other compensation arising from or related to the use of the photograph or video footage. I hereby agree to release, defend, and hold harmless the Sponsors and its associates, including any firm publishing and/or distributing the finished product in whole or in part, whether on paper or via electronic media, from and against any claims, damages or liability arising from or related to the use of the photographs or video including but not limited to any misuse, distortion, blurring, alteration, optical illusion or use in composite form, either intentionally or otherwise, that may occur or be produced in taking, processing, reduction or production of the finished product, its publication or distribution. If you agree, please check the paragraph below and choose what information release you grant, fill out the information, and sign below:
